CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This Corporate Governance Statement is current as at 29 April 2022 and has been approved by the Board of the Company on that date.

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out the Company's corporate governance practices and discloses the extent to which the Company has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles & Recommendations 4th Edition (Recommendations) for the financial year ended 31 December 2021. The Recommendations are not mandatory, however the Recommendations that have not been followed for any part of the reporting period and to the date of signing the Directors' Report have been identified and reasons provided for not following them, along with what (if any) alternative governance practices that have been adopted in lieu of the recommendation during the period.

The Company has adopted corporate governance policies, charters and codes, which are available on the Company's website at <https://www.auricmining.com.au/about/#corp-governance>.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
Recommendation 1.1 (a) A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter which sets out the respective roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Chair and management, and includes a description of those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management.	YES	The Company has adopted a Board Charter that sets out the specific roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Chair and management and includes a description of those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management.  The Board Charter sets out the specific responsibilities of the Board, requirements as to the Board's composition, the roles and responsibilities of the Chairman and Company Secretary, the establishment, operation and management of Board Committees, Directors' access to Company records and information, details of the Board's relationship with management, details of the Board's performance review and details of the Board's disclosure policy.  A copy of the Company's Board Charter is available on the Company's website at https://www.auricmining.com.au/about/#corp-governance .

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a Director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director.	YES	(a) The Company has guidelines for the appointment and selection of Directors and senior executives. The Company's Nomination Committee Charter requires the Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) to ensure appropriate checks (including checks in respect of character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history (as appropriate)) are undertaken before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a Director. In the event of an unsatisfactory check, a Director is required to submit their resignation. (b) The qualifications, experience and special responsibilities of the Directors are set out in the Directors' Report of the Annual Report. Under the Nomination Committee Charter, all material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director must be provided to security holders in the Notice of Meeting containing the resolution to elect or re-elect a Director.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each Director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	YES	The Company's Nomination Committee Charter requires the Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) to ensure that each Director and senior executive is personally a party to a written agreement with the Company which sets out the terms of that Director's or senior executive's appointment. The Company has written agreements with each of its Directors and senior executives.
Recommendation 1.4 The Company Secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.	YES	The Company Secretary is appointed by the Board. The Board Charter outlines the roles, responsibility and accountability of the Company Secretary. In accordance with this, the Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with governance and the proper functioning of the Board. The Company Secretary is responsible for developing and maintaining appropriate governance systems and processes for the Board to fulfill its role, and is responsible to the Board for ensuring compliance with Board procedures and governance matters.

Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: (a) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (b) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (c) either: (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in the Workplace Gender Equality Act. If the entity was in the S&amp;P / ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period. If the entity was in the S&amp;P / ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable	NO	The Company has not adopted a Diversity Policy, until such time as the size of the Company's operations and the Board justifies the establishment of such a policy. The Board does not anticipate there would be a need to appoint any new Directors or senior executives due to the limited nature of the Company's existing and proposed activities and the Board's view that the existing Directors and senior executives have sufficient skill and experience to carry out the Company's plans. The Company recognises that people are its most important asset and is committed to the maintenance and promotion of workplace diversity and equal opportunity. As a measurement of gender diversity, the proportion of women employees in the Company as at 31 December 2021 are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Women on the Board – 0%</li> <li>• Women in Senior Executive positions – 0%</li> <li>• Women in the Organisation – 20%</li> </ul> The Company is not a relevant employer under the Workplace Gender Equality Act.

objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.
Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual Directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	YES	(a) The Company's Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) is responsible for evaluating the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors on an annual basis. It may do so with the aid of an independent advisor. The process for this is set out in the Company's Board and Nomination Committee Charters, which are available on the Company's website at https://www.auricmining.com.au/about/#corp-governance. (b) A performance evaluation was not undertaken during the reporting period.
Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (c) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (d) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	YES	(a) The Company's Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) is responsible for evaluating the performance of the Company's Senior Executives on an annual basis. The Board is responsible for evaluating the remuneration of the Company's Senior Executives on an annual basis. A Senior Executive, for these purposes, means Key Management Personnel (as defined in the Corporations Act) other than a non-executive Director. The applicable processes for these evaluations can be found in the Company's Nomination Committee Charter, which is available on the Company's website at https://www.auricmining.com.au/about/#corp-governance. (b) A performance evaluation was not undertaken during the reporting period.
Principle 2: Structure the Board to be effective and add value
Recommendation 2.1 The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (a) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent Directors; and (b) is chaired by an independent Director,	NO	(a) A Nomination Committee has not been established and the function of the Nomination Committee will be fulfilled by the Board having regard to the policies set out in the Nomination Committee Charter, until such time as the size of the Company's operations and the Board justifies the establishment of such a Committee. The Company will review this position periodically.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
and disclose: (c) the charter of the committee; (d) the members of the committee; and (e) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address Board succession issues and to ensure that the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.		(b) The Board will carry out the duties that would ordinarily be carried out by the Nomination Committee under the Nomination Committee Charter, such as address succession issues and ensure the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, experience and knowledge to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively. A copy of the Company's Nomination Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at https://www.auricmining.com.au/about/#corp-governance.
Recommendation 2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	YES	Under the Nomination Committee Charter, the Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) is required to prepare a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the Board currently has (or is looking to achieve) and to review this at least annually to ensure there is an appropriate mix of skills and experience to enable the Board to discharge its governance and oversight obligations effectively. The Company has adopted a Board skill matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership. A copy of the Company's Board skills matrix is available on the Company's website at https://www.auricmining.com.au/about/#corp-governance.

Recommendation 2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the Directors considered by the Board to be independent Directors; (b) if a Director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles &amp; Recommendations (4th Edition), but the Board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the Director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the Board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each Director	YES	(a) The Board Charter requires the disclosure of the names of Directors considered by the Board to be independent. The Board considers that there are currently no Independent Directors. (b) There are no Independent Directors and so this is not applicable. (c) The Company's Annual Report/website discloses the length of service of each Director, as at the end of each financial year.
Recommendation 2.4 A majority of the Board of a listed entity should be independent Directors.	NO	The Company's Board Charter requires that, where practical, the majority of the Board should be independent. Currently, the majority of the Board is not considered independent. The Board does not consider an independent majority of the Board will be appropriate given: (a) the speculative nature of the Company's business, and its limited scale of activities, means the Company only needs, and can only commercially sustain, a small Board of four (4) Directors and no senior executives other than the executive Director(s); (b) the Company considers at least three (3) Directors need to be executive Directors for the Company to be effectively managed; and (c) the Company considers it necessary, given its speculative and small scale activities, to attract and retain suitable Directors by offering Directors an interest in the Company. The Board has taken the following steps to structure the Board to add value despite not having an independent majority of Directors:

		(a) appointing directors based on their skills in management , mining exploration, finance, accounting and corporate governance. The Board will periodically review the size and composition of its Board. Directors must immediately declare any potential or active conflicts of interest to the Board. Furthermore, all Directors are entitled to seek independent professional advice as and when required. The Directors believe they are able to objectively analyse the issues before them in the best interest of all shareholders and in accordance with their duties as Directors.
Recommendation 2.5 The Chair of the Board of a listed entity should be an independent Director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	NO	The Board Charter provides that, where practical, the Chair of the Board should be an independent Director and should not be the CEO/Managing Director. The Chair of the Company is not an independent Director, but is not the CEO/Managing Director. Given the Company's current size and operations, the Board believes that the Chair, with his extensive experience in business, is able to bring independent judgement to matters before the Board, while being assisted by an external corporate governance consultant.
Recommendation 2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new Directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as Directors effectively.	YES	In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) is responsible for the approval and review of induction and continuing professional development programs and procedures for Directors to ensure that they can effectively discharge their responsibilities. The Company Secretary is responsible for facilitating inductions and professional development of Directors. Directors are also encouraged to attend external director education programs to develop their skills and knowledge.
